It is to be three stories in height. Another building of similar construction has just been completed at the northeast corper of Broadway and Sixty-second street. PAY OF COURT POLICEMEN.

Board of Magistrates Makes Public Correspondence With Commissioner Bingham. At the regular meeting of the Board of Magistrates yesterday afternoon Magistrate Wahle, president of the board, read a letter from Police Commissioner Bingham, and his reply to it, on the matter of paying the salaries of policemen assigned to the police courts.

Gen. Bingham's letter, written on July 19, said that as long as policemen were employed in the courts they should be paid out of the Magistrates' budget. The letter characterized the present arrangement by which the court policemen remain in the pay of the Police Department as indicating that the policy of the Magistrates is to let other departments pay the expenses of their own.

Magistrate Wahle was absent from this city at the time and did not receive the letter until July 29. In his reply, he argued that the policemen were assigned to the courts as a part of regular police duty, and that the Magistrates had no power to include their pay in the magisterial budget. He held that the cases of the policemer attached to the Health Department and the tenement house squad, which the Com-missioner cited as a precedent, were not missioner cited as a precedent, were not on a similar basis.

This letter reached the Commissioner just before he left for his vacation, so no reply to it has been received. The matter of keeping policemen in the courts is now in the hands of the Supreme Court on a mandamus proceeding.

in the hands of the Supreme Court on a mandamus proceeding.

Magistrate Wahle has also written Acting Commissioner Mathot to reinstate Patrolman John Long on the bridge at the Essex Market Court. In this letter he calls attention to an agreement made between himself and Commissioner Bingham, by which the Board of Magistrates was to be consulted before transfers of court policemen could be made. Long speaks German and Yiddish, and Magistrate Wahle says he is needed on the Essex Market bridge.

Battery Dan Finn came down from Saratoga yesterday morning in response to a telegram to explain to the board his absence from the city which resulted in Magistrate Cornell's criticism on August 12, He said:

12. He said:

"I had an agreement with Magistrate Breen by which I was to sit for him in July and he sit for me in August, thus giving each of us a clear month off. I fulfilled my part of the agreement and sat twenty-girls in the said of the agreement and sat twenty-girls and said of the said eight days in July. The rearrangement of schedule by which I am to go to work now instead of on September 9 robs me of two weeks vacation."

Magistrate Cornell said that he had not magistrate Cornell said that he had not understood the circumstances, and the beard unanimously accepted Magistrate Finn's explanation. He will sit to-day in the West Chester court, relieving Magistrate Synchronic Court, relieving Magistrate Synchronic Court, relieving Magistrate Synchronic Court, relieving Magistrate Synchronic Court of the Court of the

FEW INCOMPLETE DIVORCES.

Federal Investigators Find Cases Where No Decree Was Entered. There was a flutter yesterday among those who are watching the work of the Federal employees in gathering divorce statistics in the County Court House, when among the divorce records dating back from fifteen to twenty years one or two cases were found in which no final decree had been filed. It was thought that per-haps this condition would be found to exist in many cases, but a search did not carry in many cases, but a search did not carry out this expectation.

As a matter of fact, there are undoubtedly some records on file in which no decree has been entered, either deliberately or through negligence. If the fault lies with the lawyers in the suits, and the people have renarried, believing that a decree was filed, the error can be easily remedied. But, of course, where the parties interested decided, as they have been known to do, at the last moment not to get divorced, some explanations would have to be made before a decree could be suitained at this late day. But the chance of any complications is very remote.

why a Title to Real Estate should be insured? Because a Title depends upon a great many statutes which have to be construed. Think what knowledge is required to properly understand every Real Estate statute. This Company, having a Law Department which is unequalled, has this knowledge. But if it should be in error, our policies will protect the owner against any defect in Real Estate Title.
